Hymn Lyrics

Hymn #360 Here We Have Gathered

1. Here we have gathered, gathered side by side;
circle of kinship, come and step inside!
May all who seek here find a kindly word;
may all who speak here feel they have been heard.
Sing now together this, our hearts' own song.
2. Here we have gathered, called to celebrate days of our lifetime, matters small and great:
we of all ages, women, children, men,
infants and sages, sharing what we can.
Sing now together this, our hearts' own song.
3. Life has its battles, sorrows, and regret:
but in the shadows, let us not forget:
we who now gather know each other's pain;
kindness can heal us: as we give, we gain.
Sing now in friendship this, our hearts' own song.

Hymn #155 Circle 'Round for Freedom

Circle 'round for freedom, circle 'round for peace,
for all of us imprisoned, circle for release,
circle for the planet, circle for each soul,
for the children of our children, keep the circle whole.

Hymn #212 We Are Dancing Sarah's Circle

1. We are dancing Sarah's circle,
we are dancing Sarah's circle
we are dancing Sarah's circle,
sisters, brothers, all.
2. Here we seek and find our history,
here we seek and find our history,
here we seek and find our history,
sisters, brothers, all.
3. We will all do our own naming,
we will all do our own naming,
we will all do our own naming,
sisters, brothers, all.
4. Every round a generation,
every round a generation,
every round a generation,
sisters, brothers, all.
5. On and on the circle's moving,
on and on the circle's moving,
on and on the circle's moving,
sisters, brothers, all.

“Widening the Circle”

Rev. Dr. Cynthia L. Landrum

Edwin Markham wrote the poem “Outwitted” which states:

“He drew a circle that shut me out --
Heretic, rebel, a thing to flout.
But love and I had the wit to win:
We drew a circle and took him in!”

This week we'll talk about what it means to be a faith that ever widens the circle of inclusivity.
