FPC Joins the UU Church of Kent, Ohio for this Sunday!

"Where Memory Presses Green Land"

Rev. Steven Protzman

For Memorial Day weekend, FPC will be joining the Unitarian Universalist Church of Kent, Ohio at their service!

In his poem "Silenced Cries" James Coburn writes about the 1921 Tulsa Massacre and the racially motivated destruction of the Greenwood area, known as "Black Wall Street". He says " What do I know but clouds of smoke once rose where memory presses green land." On this, the 100th anniversary of the massacre, we will tell the rarely heard story of this event and reflect on the work we are called to do to end racism in our country.

We will be guests at the Kent, Ohio congregation, so there will be some differences from our regular service. UUCK opens their doors at 9:45 for their 10am service, requires your name as part of their waiting room process but will help you change your screen name like we do, has breakout groups before the service to chat, and uses the chat box for sharing joys and sorrows. We will not be posting an order of service, but will post an announcements document.

FOR THOSE WHO WANT TO CONNECT BY PHONE:

1. You'll need three pieces of information: The phone number, the meeting ID and password. These change each week, so they can be found in the newsletter under the Sunday service. Occasionally zoom changes this information at a last minute, but you can always call an FPC member or staff member for them. We post them on the website under the Sunday service information if you have web access, and we update the information there when problems arise.

2. Dial the phone number provided.

It is a long-distance number, so your carrier rates will apply.

3. Enter the meeting ID when prompted, followed by #.

Enter # again if prompted to. If you join too early (before 9:35ish), you'll either be told that it hasn't started and to come back later, or told to press # to wait.

4. Enter the passcode when prompted followed by a #.

You may be in a "waiting room" where you won't hear much until shortly before the service

5. When you hear people introducing themselves, and at joys and sorrows, you can use *6 to unmute yourself and tell people who you are or share your joy or sorrow

MAY PLATE SHARING

Boston Area Gleaners

Boston Area Gleaners (BAG) is a community-supported 501 (c) (3) organization whose core commitment is bringing food to those in need. The Gleaners do this in part by rescuing surplus crops from local farms, such as Applefield and Small Farm in Stow and Cucurbit Farm in Acton, that would otherwise go to waste and distributing the surplus to hunger relief organizations, such as area food banks, shelters, meal programs, and low-income markets that provide food to agencies with a social justice mission. Boston Area Gleaners relies on the efforts of many volunteers to harvest during the season and to distribute perishables to hunger relief organizations during the winter months.

During the Covid-19 pandemic, BAG has re-engineered their volunteer operation to increase the distribution of emergency food to relief organizations serving food-insecure populations. They've participated in the USDA Farm to Families initiative and collaborated with Food for Free, Just Eats Grocery Box program, to distribute family-size boxes of food each week during the winter to residents of Greater Boston.

As part of BAG's vision to expand its impact from farms to families, it has agreed to purchase Stonefield Farm in Acton. To fund this, it is selling an Agricultural Preservation Restriction on the property to the Town of Acton and Sudbury Valley Trustees. This will ensure the land will remain undeveloped and open space in perpetuity.

Please visit the website www.bostonareagleaners.org to learn more about BAG's mission and how to volunteer.

"TRANSITIONS"

Rev. Dr. Cynthia L. Landrum

As we transition from spring to summer, from "building closed" to "reopening," from school year to school year, we'll honor the transitions happening among us, such as high school graduations, and the way we're all experiencing the changing, shifting times.

from 10-11AM

Meet at the Gazebo at Town Park adjacent to FPC.

Wear a mask, dress for the weather,
and bring your own coffee!

If the weather is poor an FPC Announce will be posted with a link for a Zoom meetup instead. . ~Ann Sadler

SHORT AND QUICK

Warm days are here and our Church campus needs a little TLC. We are asking for people to help spruce up garden areas by removing leaves, cutting back dead debree, and making the beds look nice nice. We combined the gardens for this because no one garden would take much time.

Here is the sign up to help -

<https://www.signupgenius.com/go/10C0D49A4AB22A4FAC07-spring>

As part of the experience, we invite you look around, breath in the campus, feel its pulse, and consider adopting a garden as a Caretaker. Here is the signup genius for that: <https://www.signupgenius.com/go/10C0D49A4AB22A4FAC07-adopt>

Thanks in advance for all your efforts,

APPLICATIONS FOR SHARE THE PLATE DUE BY JUNE 3

The Social Justice Council is now accepting applications for Share the Plate recipients for the 2021-2022 church year.

Nominations for organizations to share half of non-pledge donations collected at services throughout the church year can be submitted by email through June 3, 2021.

The plate sharing program is open to all for nominations, you do not need to be part of the current social justice programs at FPC. We ask that nominators be personally involved with the organization and be able to bring actions or education to FPC about the work of the organization.

To nominate an organization, please send an email to Josh Ledwell jledwell@gmail.com including the following:

- A short description of the organization that will be
- included in a survey to the congregation for voting on the organizations to share the plate.
- Your involvement with the organization.
- Ideas for how you will educate and involve the congregation in the work of the organization.
- If you have a preference for a specific month.

The Social Justice Council will review nominations to be sure they align to our Social Justice mission and our principles. The SJC will send a survey to the congregation which will include the nominated organizations. The SJC will review survey results and present the slate for the plate share to the Board of Trustees for final approval.

Those that submit proposals will be notified of the results by the middle of August. If selected, you will be asked to provide a description of your project to be included in the Chronicle newsletter and the Order of Service in the month your project will share the plate.

Please contact me with any questions. We look forward to hearing from you about the social justice projects that you would like to nominate to share our plate.

Thank you,
 Josh Ledwell
 On behalf of the Social Justice Council

IMPORTANT FPC CALENDAR INFORMATION

Dear program and committee leaders,

1. At this time, we're still working on our plans for how our building will be used on Sunday mornings when we return to the building. At this time, we think it is likely that worship, RE, and social hour will be using different and multiple spaces to allow for distancing, in ways that require set-up time in those spaces. Because we are not sure what our room needs will be for these important Sunday morning events, we are not currently allowing room reservations for Sundays 8am-1pm for the next church year. This will likely change in August or in the fall as things evolve. In the meantime, we encourage groups wishing to meet on Sunday mornings to look at Zoom and outside options.

And, as always, we encourage committees and task forces to avoid Sunday meetings whenever possible, so that Sunday at church can be a sabbath and not a work day for our members and friends (this doesn't apply to things that are programs, such as spiritual groups and intergenerational programs). We want the Sunday morning experience at FPC to be something that feeds the spirit!

Thank you! And we apologize for the inconvenience.

In faith, Cindy (continue below)
